Answer: Shockley D. Adams, David R. Bruton, Frank L. Reid and Joseph H. Wheeler.

Memoirs of them were read respectively by J. A. Cuninggim, T. N. Ivey, W. C. Norman and E. A. Yates. (Documents Nos. 7–10 of Appendix.)

Remarks in eulogy of S. D. Adams, F. L. Reid and J. H. Wheeler were made by T. W. Guthrie, N. A. Hooker, W. S. Black and M. C. Thomas.

On motion of L. L. Nash, the report was adopted.

On motion of E. A. Yates, the Conference adjourned.

Benediction by Rev. J. A. Cuninggim, D.D.

FIFTH DAY.

MONDAY, December 10th, 1894.

The Conference convened at 9:30 o'clock, Bishop Wilson in the chair.

The opening religious services were conducted by Rev. A. D. Betts.

The journals of Saturday's session and of the Memorial Services of yesterday afternoon were read and adopted.

Question 9 was called, viz.: "What traveling preachers are ordained deacons?"

Bishop Wilsou announced that he ordained yesterday morning in this church the following: Doctor N. Caviness, James H. Frizzelle, Thomas H. Sutton, Marion T. Plyler, James P. Pate, John W. Wallace, John R. Newlin and Henry E. Tripp.

Question 11 was called, viz.: "What local preachers are ordained deacons?"

Bishop Wilson announced that yesterday morning in this church he ordained the following: Lemon Thales Turner, Walter Y. Scales, Raleigh A. Bruton, Joseph M. Caroway.

Question 13 was called, viz: "What traveling preachers are ordained elders?"

Bishop Wilson announced that yesterday evening in Main Street Church, in this city, he ordained the following: Jasper B. Thompson, George W. Starling, George G. Harley, William B. Moore, John A. Rouse, Edward H. Davis and John C. Jones.

Question 15 was called, viz.: "What local preachers are ordained elders?"

Bishop Wilson announced that yesterday evening in Main Street Church, in this city, he ordained Amos L. Coburn.

John N. Cole submitted the report of the Committee on Books and Periodicals, which was read and adopted. (Document No. 11 of Appendix.)

W. S. Black introduced the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That we have heard with profound sorrow of the illness of our much beloved Bishop, A. G. Haygood, and that we will devoutly pray for his speedy and entire recovery.

W. S. Black,
L. J. Holden.

On motion of F. D. Swindell, the Secretary of the Conference was instructed to furnish H. B. Anderson a certificate of his ordination as an elder, he having lost the certificate given him by the Bishop ordaining him.

L. L. Nash introduced the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted by a rising vote:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Conference are due and they are hereby given to the good people of Durham for the bountiful and elegant hospitality manifested in our entertainment, and we do most earnestly pray the Giver of all good to bless them in all things.

L. L. Nash,
M. C. Thomas.

D. H. Tuttle submitted the report of the Board of Church Extension, which was adopted. (Document No. 12 of Appendix.)

Question 16 was called, viz.: "Who are located?"

On motion of R. B. John, Isaac A. White and N. L. Seabolt were located at their own request; and, on motion of F. D. Swindell, J. L. Keen was located at his own request.

J. W. Jenkins submitted the report of the Committee on District Conference Records, which was adopted. (Document No. 13 of Appendix.)

[Document No. 1.]

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EPWORTH LEAGUES.

The committee appointed at our last Annual Conference on Epworth League interests, have had the matter under consideration, and respectfully submit the following report:

At a joint meeting of the committees appointed by the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences, it was determined to co-operate with our Presiding Elders in giving prominence to our Epworth League interests at the District Conferences, which effort, we think, resulted in good to our work.

Our effort to secure statistics has been only a partial success. There have been reported to us 14 Epworth Leagues with about 1,000 members.

Gratified at what has been done, and believing there are large possibilities for good in Epworth League work, we recommend the following:

First. That an Epworth League Standing Committee of four preachers and three laymen be appointed for a term of four years, to have charge of all the interests of our Epworth Leagues, subject to the direction of our Annual Conference.

Second. That as it is important to keep this new branch of our church work affiliated with our other departments and properly adjusted to our regular machinery, our Presiding Elders be requested to give such prominence to Epworth League interests as is practicable at their District Conferences.

Third. That Thursday night of our Annual Conference week be observed as Epworth League Anniversary, and that this be the order of exercises for said night of this Conference.

Fourth. That, whereas, we believe a State Conference of Epworth League workers would strengthen the bonds of unity already existing between the two Conferences and would advance the Epworth League interests among our young people; and, whereas, our Discipline provides for such Conferences, and as the Board of Trustees of Trinity College has kindly tendered the use of the college for such purpose, therefore a State League Conference be held at Trinity Park, Durham, N. C., during the summer of 1895, provided the Western North Carolina Conference unite with us in this enterprise, and that our Epworth League Committee co-operate with a similar committee appointed by the Western North Carolina Conference to arrange for holding said State League Conference.

Fifth. That, believing a Summer School, wherein the various interests of our church could be represented, would also unify and strengthen the bonds of our common Methodism in the State, and as the Board of Trustees of Trinity College has tendered the use of college buildings and park for this purpose also, therefore this Conference appoint a committee consisting of Revs. J. C. Kilgo, N. M. Watson and T. N. Ivey, who shall confer with a like committee appointed by the Western North Carolina Conference, and who shall take such steps as they may judge expedient towards establishing such Summer School.

Sixth. That, whereas, we believe our best religious work to be that loyally done within the jurisdiction of our own church; and, whereas, several interdenominational and non-denominational organizations have sprung up in our midst having a tendency to draw our young people from regular church work; therefore, we disapprove the organization among our members of any such societies as are antagonistic to our Epworth Leagues, and that our pastors organize Epworth Leagues in their charges as far as practicable.

Seventh. That regretting so few of our Leagues have responded to the assessment of 10 cents per member made by the General Epworth League Board for necessary expenses, we urge all our delinquent Leagues to pay this assessment at their earliest opportunity.

Eighth. That we regret the unfortunate utterances of the Editor of the Epworth Era, and decline to recommend said paper to the patronage of our people so long as its columns are open to such utterances as tend to destroy the spirit of loyalty in our young people; and deprecate any literature calculated to lead them away from the constituted authorities of our church; and recommend to all our pastors and leading League workers vigilant watchfulness over the class of literature placed in the hands of the League.

Ninth. That we heartily endorse the International League Conference to be held at Chattanooga, Tennessee, in June, 1895.

Respectfully,

F. A. Bishop,
L. L. Nash,
W. H. Branson,
J. B. Hurley.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF COLPORTAGE.

We are highly gratified at the success that has attended the work of our Agent of Colportage and Sunday Schools during the year. Notwithstanding the continued scarcity of money through the year, he has sold within the bounds of our North Carolina Methodism more than $16,000 worth of religious books and periodicals.

Resolved 1st. That we gladly accept the proposition of the Western North Carolina Conference to continue with them in one system of Colportage.

Resolved 2d. That we earnestly request our preachers and people to buy all of their books from our Agent, and order all their Sunday School supplies through him.

Resolved 3d, That we request Bishop Wilson to appoint Rev. T. J. Gattis Colporter and Sunday School Agent, and we hereby pledge him our hearty support in this all-important and responsible work.

P. L. HERMAN, Chairman.

[Document No. 3.]

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE.

The Committee on Bible Cause beg leave to report as follows:

That our Church receives the Bible as now found, to be the pure, unadulterated will and word of God, and that it is our duty to use every worthy incentive to get our people to study it prayerfully, and to place a copy of it in every home where it is not already found. We also call special attention of both pastors and laymen to the legislation enacted at our last General Conference concerning the American Bible Society. We recommend that the interest of the American Bible Society be presented to all our congregations during the month of April, and that the contributions be sent to Rev. T. H. Lovè, D. D., at Spartanburg, S. C.

Respectfully submitted,

P. L. HERMAN, Chairman.

E. E. ROSE, Secretary.

[Document No. 4.]

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

Your Committee to whom was referred the consideration of the Temperance question, recognizing its great importance, respectfully request the adoption of the following report:

1st. That we are heartily and unequivocally in favor of the absolute suppression by law of the sale of intoxicating liquors, and that we exert every possible effort in disseminating this sentiment among our people.

2d. That we recommend that this Conference memorialize the General Assembly of North Carolina, at its next session, to enact into law a bill prepared by the Temperance Association of this State, to be entitled "An act to regulate the sale of intoxicating liquors."

3d. That we furthermore most earnestly urge that the preachers and laymen of this Conference, and all other sympathizers with the temperance movement, join us in any effort that will be most effectual in accomplishing this end.

4th. We call attention especially to chapter 5 of our Discipline, on page 97, which gives the law of our church on temperance, as amended by the last General Conference, and we recommend that our preachers enforce the Discipline of this in all gentleness and fidelity.

Respectfully submitted,

D. H. TUTTLE, Chairman.

E. C. SELL, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The Board of Education, after hearing and investigating closely all the reports from our educational institutions, are glad to report that we find them in such excellent and prosperous condition, and are rejoiced to know that, notwithstanding our country is passing through one of the greatest financial crises known in its history, our people have not lagged in interest respecting our schools.

We rejoice in the fact that Methodism is committed to the great work of the education of her children, and we are persuaded that she is profoundly impressed with the conviction that she cannot entrust this sacred work to alien hands without imperiling her doctrines, institutions and future history.

We feel devoutly thankful for the wonderful progress already made and for the splendid future now dawning upon our educational work.

TRINITY COLLEGE.

Trinity College has had a profitable and prosperous year. In its new and elegant home, and with increased capacity for usefulness, it is equal to any of like grade in the land.

It has a large and harmonious Faculty equal in talent to any engaged in educational work, and with a loyal and generous church behind it the college looks forward to an era of unsurpassed prosperity and usefulness.

We congratulate the Trustees upon their wisdom in electing Rev. J. C. Kilgo to the Presidency of Trinity College. He is a young man, in touch with the thought and progressive spirit of the age, and richly endowed with all those elements of mind and heart that peculiarly fit him for the great work to which the church has called him. Under his wise leadership, backed by his great enthusiasm and heroic faith in God and man, we may confidently expect him to develop the highest possibilities of the institution over which he presides, the past history of which we are not ashamed.

The Board recommends the following:

1. That an assessment of $5,000 be made by the Conference to help run the current expenses of the College—and that it be distributed as follows:

Raleigh District	$ 605 00
Durham District	538 00
Fayetteville District	463 00
Rockingham District	513 00
Wilmington District	546 00
Newbern District	604 00
Washington District	595 00
Warrenton District	570 00
Elizabeth City District	566 00
	$5,000 00

2. That an assessment of $323.00 for the General Board, as provided under paragraph 411, be added to the above $5,000, to be prorated with it.

3. That the Conference request the Bishop to appoint Rev. John C. Kilgo President of, and Olin Boggess Professor in Trinity College.

GREENSBORO FEMALE COLLEGE.

It is with profound sorrow that the Board is called upon to chronicle the sad death of Rev. F. L. Reid, D.D., late President of this noble institution, who, only a few months ago, in his young and vigorous manhood, was called upon to preside over its destinies. But God makes no mistakes, for while He has called His servant from labor to rest, His mantle has fallen on one whom we believe is worthy and able to wear it. Prof. Dred Peacock comes to the presidency of this institution, having consecrated the strength and energy of his richly endowed young life to the one work of the education of the daughters of our homes. He has associated with him a full and competent Faculty, who share the deep interest which he manifests in the intellectual and spiritual welfare of the pupils committed to his care.

LITTLETON FEMALE COLLEGE.

We are rejoiced to report that Littleton Female College, in which the Conference owns a controlling interest, continues in a prosperous and growing condition. We believe that no school of like grade is doing more honest and thorough work, and is in every way worthy of the confidence and patronage of our people.

We recommend that the Rev. J. M. Rhodes be appointed its President.

LOUISBURG FEMALE COLLEGE.

We are glad to report that this old and time-honored institution has resumed work under more favorable conditions and with better facilities and equipments, and is now in the midst of a very prosperous year.

We heartily endorse this institution of learning and recommend that Rev. J. A. Green be appointed President.

TRINITY HIGH SCHOOL.

This is an institution of high grade, and is under the management of the Trustees of Trinity College, and, like the College, is the property of both the North Carolina and the Western North Carolina Conferences.

We are rejoiced to note its continued prosperity, and heartily recommend it to the patronage of our people.

The action of the last General Conference in constituting a Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the election of a Secretary of Education, we regard as eminently wise. In order to complete the organization in our own Conference, and to facilitate the work in behalf of this important interest of the church, your Board recommends the adoption of the following:

1. This Conference shall elect a Conference Secretary of Education, to serve without salary, to whom the several District Boards of Education hereinafter provided for shall report immediately upon their organization. It shall be the duty of the Conference Secretary of Education to see that the District Boards be furnished with catalogues of all our institutions and with all information necessary to the prosecution of the work of the District Boards, and to keep a roster of teachers desiring situations, and to put them in correspondence with the Boards applying for teachers.

2. This Conference shall also elect a Conference Treasurer of Education, to whom all moneys belonging to the Conference Board of Education shall be paid, and who shall pay out of the said funds the expenses of the Secretary of the Board for stationery, printing, etc., and the traveling expenses of members of the District Boards when in the discharge of their duties as members of the Board, and shall present an itemized statement of all moneys received and disbursed by him to the Annual Conference Board of Education, with vouchers therefor.

II. DISTRICT BOARDS OF EDUCATION.

Every District Conference shall elect, for a term of two years, four laymen, and the Presiding Elder shall appoint three preachers from his District, as a District Board of Education. The Presiding Elder shall be ex officio a member of the Board, and he shall have power to fill any vacancies occurring in the Board in the interim of District Conferences.

He shall call a meeting of the Board for his District in the month of April, which shall effect its own organization, and report the same to the Conference Secretary of Education, and lay such plans for their work in the District as in their judgment are advisable. The four laymen upon this Board shall be ex officio members of the District Conference. It shall be the duty of the District Boards of Education:

1. To secure through the Local Boards of Education hereinafter provided for such facts concerning the number of children and young people of our own church of school age and the facilities for education within their bounds as shall enable the church to know the needs of our people; to secure from the Secretary the names of such teachers as desire situations, and to do all in their power to supply the local needs within the bounds of their several districts; to procure the names and addresses of such young people as may be induced to attend our academies and colleges and to report them to the Faculties; personally to aid the agents of our schools in whatever way possible when canvassing within their bounds; and to report in writing to the District Conference the work of the Board for the year, together with the statistics before mentioned.

2. No student for our ministry shall be admitted to our academies or colleges as a beneficiary student who has not been recommended to the District Board by the Local Board of the charge in which he holds his membership, and by the District Board to the Faculty of the institution which he proposes to enter. When such application is made and approved, the District Boards shall diligently enquire what amount of aid is absolutely necessary for such applicant to meet expenses other than tuition, and shall inform the Local Boards of the amounts expected of them; and the Local Boards shall raise the amounts in such way as they shall deem best; and the said amounts, when raised, shall be forwarded to the Treasurer of the Conference Board of Education, with information for whom it is to be used.

3. No school shall be recommended to the patronage of our people by the District Conferences that has not secured the approval of the District Board of Education.

III. LOCAL BOARDS.

In each pastoral charge there shall be a Local Board of Education, consisting of three members, to be elected by the Quarterly Conference upon nomination of the preacher in charge. It shall be the duty of the Local Boards:

1. To co-operate with the pastor and Sunday School Superintendent in arranging and executing a programme for Children's Day.

2. To secure, as far as possible, the statistics called for by the District Board of Education.

3. To aid the representatives of our educational institutions in the canvass of the charge.

4. To recommend to the District Board of Education such persons as they approve as beneficiary candidates for the ministry, and to raise the amount laid upon the charge by the District Board under section 2.

5. To report in writing to the District Board of Education the statistics gathered by them of the educational work within the pastoral charges, together with the number of students attending our institutions of learning from their charges.

In order to carry this organization into effect at once, we recommend that the Presiding Elders be requested now to name four laymen in each of their several districts, to be elected by this Conference, to act until the meeting of the District Conference, and that the Presiding Elders to be appointed add to these, immediately after the appointments are made, the clerical members necessary to complete the Board.

In order further to forward the work of education within our Conference, we recommend that the Annual Conference Board of Education be elected to serve for four years. R. J. MOORMAN, Chairman.

J. B. HURLEY, Secretary.

In accordance with the recommendation in the above report that the Presiding Elders name four laymen in each district to serve as a District Committee till the District Conferences convene, the following were named:

Raleigh District.—J. G. Brown, G. S. Baker, R. F. Jones, T. R. Hood.

Durham District.—W. H. Branson, G. G. Dailey, V. Ballard, E. J. Parrish.

Fayetteville District.—W. F. Stroud, W. J. Adams, J. M. Lamb, J. D. Fox.

Rockingham District.—A. F. Page, H. C. Wall, F. B. Gibson, W. B. Harker.

Wilmington District.—W. G. Burkhead, Dr. J. L. Nicholson, W. E. Springer, Frank Thompson.

Newbern District.—T. W. Dewey, W. R. Allen, F. A. Whitaker, E. P. Mangum.

Washington District.—T. J. Jarvis, J. M. Benson, Dr. J. W. Jones, Dr. Albert Anderson.

Warrenton District.—Dr. N. V. Dunston, Dr. W. T. Cheatham, S. Johnson, W. B. Fleming.

Elizabeth City District.—L. L. Smith, J. B. Leigh, L. W. McMullan, Dr. John McMullan.

MEMOIR OF REV. S. D. ADAMS.

Rev. Shockley D. Adams, son of William and Elizabeth Gibson Adams, was born in Marlboro County, South Carolina, July 23, 1829. He was converted November 3, 1842, at Pine Grove, Bennettsville Circuit, South Carolina Conference, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church the same day—his father joining with him. He was appointed class leader June 24, 1846, licensed to exhort December 1, 1849, and licensed to preach October 26, 1850—Rev. Wm. Barringer, P. E. Received on trial in the N. C. Conference at Louisburg, October, 1852; ordained deacon by Bishop G. F. Pierce at Pittsboro, November 5, 1854, and ordained elder by Bishop Early at Greensboro, November 16, 1856. He served the following fields of labor:

1852, Bladen Circuit, as junior preacher with Rev. J. B. Martin, P. C.

1853, Deep River Circuit.

1854–'55, Carthage Circuit.

1856, Mocksville Circuit.

1857–'58, Davidson Circuit.

1859–'60, Rockingham Circuit.

1861–'62, Haw River Circuit.

1863–'64, Carthage Circuit.

1865–'66, Rockingham Circuit.

1867–'70, inclusive, P. E. Fayetteville District.

1871–'73, inclusive, Washington District.

1874–'75, Fayetteville District.

1876–'78, inclusive, Greensboro Station.

1879–'80, Hillsboro District.

1881–'84, inclusive, Raleigh District.

1885–'88, inclusive, again on Fayetteville District.

1889–'90, Greensboro District.

1891, and until his death in 1894, on Warrenton District.

Thus fourteen years on circuits, three years on stations, and twenty-five years on districts, give an unbroken service to the ministry of the church of forty-two years.

He was not well for two weeks before his death, and somewhat hindered in his work, but not confined to his bed all of any one day. He died of heart failure at Brother Whitfield's, at Weldon, in the room which he had called his home on his District for three years past. As he approached the end he made the following beautiful utterances. When informed by Brother Troy that he was passing away, he said, "Tell Mary all is well, all is well!" To Brother Troy he said, "Meet me in heaven!" After awhile Bro. T. inquired, "Is Jesus with you?" He replied, "O yes; glory! glory!" Bro. Troy asked, "Have you any message for the brethren of the Conference?" His response was, "All is well, all is well!" He then added, "Poor Mary, it will almost break her heart!" and in five minutes he was asleep in Jesus.

He died at his post in Weldon, February 12th, 1894. Brothers Troy and Harrison held a short service with his friends at Brother Whitfield's before removing the body for its trip to its last resting place. The friends at Weldon served him with loving kindness.

Since the year 1874 he has had a home in Carthage, N. C., where his beautiful life had been singularly helpful to all the interests of the community. Here we buried him February 14th, 1894. The whole town was moved by one common sorrow at his death. Every place of business was closed, and the great throng which gathered and shared with tears in the funeral service declared how they loved him. Eleven of his brethren in the ministry from different parts of the Conference took part in the services.

He was in the best sense a great man. All the elements of strength were so blended in him as to produce a well-balanced character. Large common sense, a sensitive yet intelligent conscience, a simple yet courageous faith, diligence in seeking the truth, wisdom to discern and walk in the right way, made his life a bright, cheerful and increasingly helpful force to all who knew him. And to know him was to love him. He had the confidence of his church. He served long and well as Trustee in her schools—Greensboro, Trinity, Murfreesboro, and Littleton Colleges. He was chosen also a member of committees and commissions when delicate and difficult work was to be done. He was a member of one or more sessions of the General Conference, the lawmaking body of his church. He did his best at every point where he was called to serve. He was a good preacher; sound in doctrine, clear in statement, choice in language, instructive in matter and illustration, and on some occasions with great spiritual unction and power; the multitudes were moved to nobler purposes and holy lives through the power of the truths proclaimed. Who that heard his last sermon in Carthage on the last day of the old year can ever forget it? His personal piety was sweet, unostentatious, comforting, and often joyous. It was a keeping power which no troubles, or labors, or afflictions seemingly seriously affected. There was wonderful uniformity in spirit and life. He was ready when the end came, and went into a larger realm of communion with Him who loved and gave himself for him.

He was twice married. The first time to Miss Martha Fletcher, of his native county, who bore him a son and a daughter. Like Rachel in the home of Jacob, she was soon torn away from him. In due time he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Jackson, of Carthage, who shared for thirty-eight years his toils, sorrows and joys, and contributed her full share to his successful life. How he loved his Mary! She bore him two sons and two daughters. She and all his children survive him and deeply lament his death. What a legacy he has left them in his beautiful life and triumphant death! May they follow him as he followed Christ, until they see him again in glory forever.

MEMOIR OF REV. DAVID R. BRUTON.

David Rasbury Bruton, youngest son of James and Diana Bruton, was born in Montgomery County, N. C., December 23, 1829, and died at Wilson, N. C., March 27, 1894.

Early in life he gave his heart to God and connected himself with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Soon afterward he gave himself to the work of the Methodist ministry.

In 1857, after his graduation at Trinity (then Normal) College, he applied for admission on trial into the North Carolina Conference, holding its session in the town of Goldsboro. At this Conference he was appointed to the Presidency of the Raleigh Female Seminary. His ministerial life was a long and honorable one, as can be seen from the following list of appointments served by him :

1857–'59, Raleigh Female Seminary.
1859–'61, Wentworth Circuit.
1861–'63, Madison Circuit.
1864–'65, Thomasville and Lexington Circuit.
1865–'67, Thomasville Station.
1867–'69, President of Thomasville Female College.
1869–'70, Davidson Circuit.
1870–'74, Concord Station.
1874–'78, Salisbury District.
1878–'82, Greensboro Station.
1882 '84, Warrenton District.
1884–'86, Reidsville Station.
1886–'88, supernumerary.
1888–'89, Nashville Circuit.
1889–'90, Bethel Circuit.
1890–'94, superannuated.

In 1858 he was married to Margaret G. Nixon, who died in 1865, leaving two children, who are now living—Col. John F. Bruton, of Wilson, N. C., and Miss Ella S. Bruton, of Wesleyan Female Institute.

In 1869 he was married to Virginia Mauney, who died in 1889. The fruit of this union was four children, three of whom survive him—Mrs. E. W. Burt, Helen and David Bruton.

Brother Bruton's ministry was a long and honorable one, covering more than one-third of a century. As circuit rider, stationed pastor, presiding elder and college president he ran almost the whole gamut of ministerial experience. This fact shows the worth and influence of the man in his day and generation. He was, in fact, one of our most useful and influential men. In his prime he did much to impress his character upon the important plans and enterprises of North Carolina Methodism. His mind was acute, his thought clear and striking—he was a man of true culture. This culture was manifested in his general bearing and preaching power. It can be truthfully said that as a preacher he was above the ordinary. His preaching was characterized by strength rather than brilliancy. Yet at times he was both brilliant and strong. A minister of the North Carolina Conference who is not given to the utterance of fulsome compliment remarked to the reader, in substance, that some of the sermons preached by Brother Bruton the preceding summer in Catawba County were powerful in the extreme. He was especially pointed and powerful in the denunciation of sin. Bro. Bruton's most popular work was done, perhaps, when he was pastor at Concord Station and Presiding Elder of the Salisbury District; yet his best work, I have no doubt, was done in the country, away from the noisy towns, where he met large congregations hungry for the bread of life; where he could inhale the sweet breath of the hills and hear the voice of Nature echoed in the song of bird and moan of forest. Here he seemed to get nearer to God, and preached with melting tenderness and apostolic zeal. His preaching was truly evangelical, and through the Holy Spirit brought many wanderers into the fold.

Perhaps the richest tribute is paid to his character when it is said that he was a man of heart. We have not many of whom this can be said. The learned author of the "Tongue of Fire" has said with beauty and force, "The heart commands the man. Give me a heart and you give me a man." According to this, Brother Bruton was a man—a man such as we need and such as God loves. He had a heart tender and true, pure and Christ-like. This tender part of his nature made him a loving husband and father, and riveted to him the deepest affections of his family. It made him a welcomed one in the social circle. It enlisted the affections of the poor and unfortunate.

It made him the special friend of young men. No young preacher had any fear in preaching to a congregation in which Brother Bruton sat. The benignant sympathetic look, the hearty amen, bade every timid fear begone. There are in North Carolina to-day numbers of men, prominent in church and State, who, to a great extent, owe what they are to the interest Brother Bruton showed in them when they were young men.

Brother Bruton never altogether ceased from preaching. He did much effective work in the superannuated relation. It is a cheering thought that on the Sabbath preceding his death—that bleak, wintry Sabbath, when nature seemed disorganized, distracted—this man of God stood in the pulpit at Fremont and told the "old, old story of Jesus and His love."

As he grew older his spiritual experience grew richer. He enjoyed with increasing relish the presence of his Master. Though worn down with disease and harassed by misfortune his spirit never murmured and his faith never weakened. In one of the last letters written to his son, Col. J. F. Bruton, he said, "I have placed my hand in His, and although everything appears dark I am trusting implicitly." No one could doubt that Brother Bruton enjoyed his religion. He returned from Fremont March 26. Before retiring on Monday night his conversation was about Jesus. He was ripening for Heaven. Though the wheat had been beaten and torn in many a storm, yet the golden color deepened in the harvest days, and it was a rich sheaf that the angels bore away in the twilight of that Tuesday morning. On the following Wednesday afternoon we laid his body down in quiet Maplewood Cemetery. Many friends followed his body to the grave.

Another one of the "Old Guard" of the Conference has passed away. Only a few are left. David Rasbury Bruton, with unstained shield and unrusted sword, has answered his Captain's call. What a rich legacy descends to every younger soldier in the memory of the old soldier and hero! "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord."

"Thus, though oft depressed and lonely,
All my fears are laid aside;
If I but remember only
Such as these have lived and died."

MEMOIR OF REV. F. L. REID, D. D.

Rev. Frank Lewis Reid, D. D., was born in Rockingham County, N. C., 16th of June, 1851, and died in Greensboro, N. C., September 24, 1894, in the forty-fourth year of his age. He was the son of Rev. N. F. Reid, D. D., and the grandson of Rev. James Reid, whose names are illustrious in the annals of North Carolina Methodism. While yet young in years he entered school at Trinity College, and at the age of nineteen graduated from that institution. In young manhood's beginning he laid his heart upon God's altar and became a member of the church of his fathers. He soon became impressed that he was divinely called to the work of the ministry, and for some months was much exercised on this subject. He did not hastily enter the work, but pondered well the solemn responsibilities of the sacred calling, and it was not until he was thoroughly convinced of his call that he consented to enter the work. Having once settled the matter he obeyed the call with all his heart, and gave himself fully to the work of the itinerant ministry.

He was received on trial into the North Carolina Conference in Greensboro, N. C., in the year 1870 and was sent to the Madison Circuit, where he remained three years. During his pastorate there his labors were greatly blessed. All around the circuit the revival fires burned and glowed, and the people flocked to hear the young and gifted preacher. He threw his whole soul into the work as he preached and talked and labored, and many were the souls born to God under his ministry "amid the hills of Dan."

It was during his pastorate on the Madison Circuit that he was happily married on June 3, 1873, to Miss Minnie E. Cardwell, of Rockingham County, who, through all the years of his life thereafter, with a beautiful devotion, shared his joys and sorrows. From this marriage were born four children, all of whom, with his wife, three brothers and three sisters, survive him. I have never seen a man who loved his family with a tenderer and more considerate affection than did our dear departed brother.

At the Conference of 1873 Dr. Reid was appointed to Louisburg Station, which charge he served for four years with distinguished success. While here, in addition to the work of the pastorate, he was called to the Presidency of Louisburg Female College, which position he filled with fidelity and ability until he resigned in 1878. It was about this time that Dr. Reid, on account of failing health and a chronic throat affection, was compelled to desist from regular preaching. This was a great cross to him. He was sorely chastened. But with the humility and trust of a little child he meekly accepted his affliction, and committed himself into the Heavenly Father's hand, and waited for the divine providence to open up a way for him to labor in the vineyard of his Lord. That way was in due time opened when he and Rev. W. S. Black, D. D., became editors and proprietors of the Raleigh Christian Advocate. Having bought Dr. Black's interest, December, 1884, he remained sole owner and manager and the editor-in-chief of the Advocate. From the time he entered upon his labors as editor until he resigned to prosecute the work in which he died his labors and zeal knew no abatement. A large portion of the time he did the work of two men, and amid bodily weakness and labors abundant and frequent discouragements he toiled on uncomplainingly through the years, almost giving his life for the work that lay so near his heart. His efforts were largely blessed, and he was permitted to see the work to which he felt providentially called prosper in his hands. No one can estimate how great a blessing Dr. Reid has been to North Carolina Methodism through the weekly visits of the Advocate.

While engaged in his arduous work as editor he served the church and his generation in various other departments of labor. Owing to his fine business tact and skill he was at different times called to give the benefit of his valuable labors in important and responsible civil positions, and whenever and wherever he served he showed himself a man of affairs, and won the admiration of all concerned as a faithful and efficient public servant. Upon the death of Rev. A. A. Boshamer, in October, 1881, he was appointed to succeed him as pastor of Edenton Street Church, in Raleigh, where the name of Dr. Reid continues unto this day as an ointment poured forth. He was appointed Presiding Elder of the Raleigh District upon the death of Rev. N. H. D. Wilson, D. D., in May, 1888, and it was on account of overwork in this extra charge that he came near dying during the same year.

He received the degree of A. B. at Trinity College in 1870, and of the same college in 1873 the degree of A. M., and the honorary degree of D. D. was conferred upon him by the University of North Carolina in 1890. In May, 1890, he was a delegate to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, held at St. Louis, and he was also a delegate to the Ecumenical Conference held at Washington, D. C., October, 1891.

Towards the middle of the year 1893 a new sphere of usefulness seemed to open up to him when he was urgently called to the Presidency of Greensboro Female College. Exercising his usual caution he did not hastily accept the call, but after much prayer and counsel with his brethren he decided to accept the position, and immediately entered upon his new and responsible work with the same energy and enthusiasm and skill that had characterized him in every sphere of duty in which he had ever served. The universal acclamation was that he was pre-eminently the man for the place; and with his heart all aglow with zeal for the prosperity of Greensboro Female College and for the cause of Christian education in general, and especially in the families of his own beloved Methodism in North Carolina, he began a vigorous campaign, which had already begun to wake up the people on the subject of Christian and denominational education. With convincing logic, earnest persuasion and burning eloquence he pressed his theme and won his way to the hearts of his hearers, and wherever his voice was heard converts were won to the cause he espoused. Under his successful leadership Greensboro Female College fast rose to an era of prosperity that has gladdened the hearts of its friends throughout the State. The results of his plans and labors, in the improvements in the building, increased patronage and general confidence in the character and success of the institution, evidence the wisdom of the Directors in placing him in this delicate and responsible position, which he served so well. His work for Greensboro Female College will abide while he sweetly rests.

He was devotedly attached to Trinity College—his Alma Mater—and labored every way, as trustee and friend, to advance its interests. At the request of the trustees he raised several thousand dollars to equip the new buildings at Durham. He was a member of the Board of Trustees until the last session of the North Carolina Conference. Few men have done so much valuable work in so short a time as he.

He has been suddenly called from labor to rest, but he was found standing bravely at his post and ready for the summons.

North Carolina Methodism mourns for her distinguished son. It is hard for us to realize that we shall never hear his voice again, nor again see the light kindle in his eye; and while we bow our hearts in chastened sorrow and reverent submission to the high and holy one, we thank God for the noble, manly, Christian life of Frank L. Reid; for his career of usefulness, and the works that do follow him.

Farewell, faithful comrade, brother, friend! By the grace of God we will meet thee again, and walk and talk with thee amid the hills of light.

MEMOIR OF THE REV. JOSEPH HALSTEAD WHEELER.

The Rev. Joseph Halstead Wheeler, an honored superannuated member of this Conference, fell asleep in Christ at the home of his son-in-law, Major Hall T. McGee, in the city of Charleston, S. C., on the 27th of November, 1894, at the ripe age of eighty-five years.

By birth he was a native of the State of New Jersey, having been born in the City of Newark in 1810. He removed to Charleston, S. C., when a boy of fourteen years of age, and was ever afterwards devoted to all the interests that made for the happiness of his adopted State. At the age of twenty-three, while residing in Camden, he felt called of God to the work of the ministry; and although at the time successfully engaged in worldly business, he gave it all up to engage in the work of leading men to Christ, and the people of God to the land of which the Lord hath said, "I will give it unto thee."

He joined the South Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1834, and for seventeen years was an active, zealous member of that Conference. As a young man, he was said to have been pure in thought, careful of his words, and of spotless integrity of character. His zeal for God and the church found expression in a somewhat stereotyped phrase, which father Wheeler was known to use throughout his whole life, "If the religion of Christ is true at all, it is tremendously true"; and his life was a glad acknowledgment of this fact.

In 1851, a portion of the territory lying within the bounds of North Carolina and belonging to the South Carolina Conference was transferred to the North Carolina Conference; and Bro. Wheeler, being stationed in Fayetteville at the time, came with the territory. He was returned the next year to Fayetteville, and he told this writer a few years since that such was the wounded feeling of a large part of the church, on account of the transfer, that his second reception as their pastor was not marked with any special manifestations of graciousness. But this writer, although quite a young man at the time, remembers that the saintly character of Bro. Wheeler, his sweet spirit and Christ-like devotion to his work, went far towards mollifying the wound, and winning back the church to a higher plane of spirit and life.

It would unnecessarily occupy space to catalogue the appointments of Bro. Wheeler, even if we had the Minutes from which to gather these. Suffice it to say, that before his transfer he filled such stations as Columbia and Spartanburg, and was for many years the Secretary of the South Carolina Conference. In our own Conference he filled such places as Fayetteville, Raleigh, Wilmington, Wadesboro, Beaufort, and many others.

This writer had the honor and profit of being Bro. Wheeler's Presiding Elder for four years, and had his help while both were stationed in Raleigh, and he can truly say that he has never been associated with a more saintly character than that of Bro. Wheeler. He was meek and lowly in heart, and had no self-seeking or worldly ambition. He was a Methodist from principle, and in love and faith preached the doctrines of his church. He was too wise to suppose that a mere moral reformation, however sincere, could take the place of a heartfelt conversion to God and witness of the Spirit, or that a life hid with Christ in God could be substituted by a mere humanitarianism. He literally hid behind the cross while he went about doing good. The cross of Christ was the great central truth of his preaching, and he held it up as the only leverage that could lift a soul from sin and death to heaven and God.

In 1883 he was placed in that honored rank of retired field marshals of the army of the living God, the superannuated preachers. He made his home in Charleston, S. C., with his daughter Anna, the wife of Major Hall T. McGee. His ministrations were most acceptable to the people of God amongst the different churches in Charleston; and when too feeble to preach, took his seat within the chancel, where even his presence was a benediction.

He had three sons in the ministry, two of whom, Joseph and William, preceded him to the better land; the other, James W., is a member of the Western North Carolina Conference. He had only two daughters, the one mentioned above, and Hattie N.; the latter, together with two other sons, Warren and Charles, are also waiting to greet their beloved father upon the eternal shore. The living have a goodly heritage in their father's teaching and godly example; and in the hour of trouble and disappointment and tears can solace their aching hearts with the recollection that their glorified father's name was without a single stain, and that when life's fitful fever is over they may meet him where the inhabitants never say I am sick, and where they never grow old.

It would not be difficult for a master to give a mental analysis of Bro. Wheeler. He was philosophical rather than logical; and this, combined with the poetic and emotional, made his preaching pathetic. He scarcely ever failed to move at least some in his audience to tears. To this may be added the Scripturalness of his propositions, while the copious quotations which he made from the Sacred Record, made him eminently a gospel preacher. His style was plain and perspicuous. There was nothing showy or meretricious in his delivery, and he impressed every hearer with the important fact that the preacher was intensely in earnest. His religious thought in the sphere of the experimental had a wide range. He fairly glowed with a consciousness of pardon and regeneration through the blood of the Lord Jesus, and as he ascended in experience the religious horizon widened, while the altitude made it possible for his spiritual ladder to touch heaven, while ministering angels assisted him to sing his favorite hymn :

" O glorious hope of perfect love !
It lifts me up to things above ;
It bears on eagle's wings ;
It gives my ravished soul a taste,
And makes me for some moments feast,
With Jesus' priests and kings."

Brother Wheeler was pious without any of the meretriciousness of pietism, and was remarkably free from any pharisaic sanctimoniousness. None knew him but to love him, and his unimpeachable character inspired universal confidence. The Conference was much stirred when his death was announced upon the Conference floor. He has answered to the last roll-call on earth, and is already known by his new name in the company of the redeemed and sanctified. The righteous shall be had in everlasting remembrance.

I have left this space for the special mention of Brother Wheeler's sainted wife. He was happily married to Miss Anne Warren, of Camden, South Carolina, in 1831, and for fifty years she was truly his helpmeet. With a large family of children, mostly boys, she managed with economy and success, training her children in the fear of the Lord, and aiding her husband in his godly labors. And so marked was this that this writer heard a lady on one occasion remark, that "Surely the Lord kept house for sister Wheeler." She was eminently qualified by nature and grace to be the wife of a minister of the gospel. "Her children rise up and call her blessed—her husband, and he praiseth her." The queen of a God-given empire—the family home—her scepter was wisdom and righteousness, and she contributed a godly woman's share towards making a heaven for humanity. She preceded her husband to the glory-land about thirteen years, dying in Hillsboro, N. C., in 1881. Only God can know how to reward such a woman. Her toils and cares, her self-sacrifice and sorrows, her struggles and triumphs were not out on the showy arena of life, where worldly honors often crown the victor, but in the home and the church, to which field God had specially called and gloriously endowed her. When she died, earth was made poorer and heaven richer.

Owing to a paralysis of the throat Brother Wheeler, during his last days, could speak but little, and scarcely enough to be understood by the loved ones who knew him best and loved him most. But last words are not necessary from one whose whole life was a constant triumph; and though dead, he yet speaketh.

His death stirred the sympathy and sorrow of a very large part of the city of Charleston, and an unusually long procession of mourners followed his remains to their last resting-place in the city of the dead. We shall no more hear his voice in prayer as he talked with God, and no more shall we be blessed with his fatherly presence. He walked with God, and is not, for God hath taken him. May his mantle ever abide upon the body of this Conference.

"Servant of God, well done!"
"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints."

E. A. YATES.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

I. Our Publishing House.

Your committee desires to give emphasis to the importance of a pure literature in the homes of our people. We feel called upon to say that we believe there are many homes in our church that are not wisely guarded in reference to the books and papers that enter into them.

A great deal of unwholesome and pernicious literature finds circulation among us. This ought not so to be. We believe that a warning voice should be lifted up and that our people should be called to consider the danger that will come to our faith and morals if we are not more guarded in the class of literature that our people read.

As a safeguard to our people, we therefore commend to them the books issued from our Publishing House as offering to them a literature both pure and strong and well suited to develop the religious and intellectual life of our church. We urge upon them to buy our own books, and thus seek to accumulate in every home in our church a library of wholesome and edifying Methodist literature.

II. The Nashville Christian Advocate.

We recognize in the Nashville Christian Advocate a religious journal of the very highest order. It is a paper of which every Southern Methodist may justly feel proud. Under the editorial control of Dr. Hoss, it has grown to a journal of commanding dignity and of very lofty character, equal, we believe, to the best published in all the borders of our great country. It stands for the truth and for the polity of our Methodism. We commend it most heartily to all our people.

III. The Southern Methodist Review.

This periodical is ably edited by Dr. Tygert, and takes rank among our best religious quarterlies. It furnishes a real need in the higher literature of our church, and should be taken by our ministers and laymen who read this class of literature.

IV. The Methodist Review of Missions.

This is a publication greatly essential to the mission cause of our church. As now edited, we believe it will quicken the mission life of our church wherever it circulates. It is full of missionary intelligence and of missionary enterprise. It would greatly help our cause to have its circulation become general throughout our borders.

V. The North Carolina Christian Advocate.

(1). We heartily endorse the action of the Commission appointed at our last Conference for the consolidation of the Methodist papers of our State.

(2). We reaffirm most positively our allegiance to the North Carolina

Christian Advocate as the organ of our Conference, and earnestly urge all our preachers to exert themselves to enlarge the subscription list and to put a copy of the paper into every Methodist home in the State.

(3). We request the presiding Bishop to appoint Rev. W. L. Grissom one of the editors of the paper.

(4). We recommend that J. N. Cole, R. B. John, W. C. Norman, W. H. Branson and J. G. Brown be appointed a committee to confer with the Advocate Publishing Company in the selection of one of the editors of the paper, whose name shall be submitted to the next annual Conference for ratification, and thereafter at each succeeding annual Conference.

(5). We welcome Rev. H. M. Blair on the editorial staff of the paper, and commend him most heartily to all our people.

(6). We express our sincere and high appreciation of the work of Rev. Dan Atkins, D. D., late editor of the paper. He has wrought well for our cause, and leaves the editorial chair bearing with him a very high degree of the esteem of this Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN N. COLE, Chairman.

J. A. LEE, Secretary.

The Board adopted the following, and presents them to the Conference for their approval:

1st. The third Sabbath in each month, wherever practicable, shall be Missionary Day in all our Sabbath Schools, and the collection that day given to missions.

2d. Our Secretary shall, as far as the means at his command permit, furnish missionary literature and appropriate exercises for these monthly meetiugs; also Dike Builders, Pyramids or other forms of the mite boxes for the children to secure contributions throughout the congregations.

3d. The third Sabbath in the month of March, and whatever third Sabbath immediately precedes the District Conference in each District, and the third Sabbath in November shall be designated as the times, whenever practicable, for holding special missionary meetings in the Sabbath Schools and congregations. On such occasions uuusual attention shall be given and unusual effort made to impress our congregations with the importance of missions. Whatever collections and offerings are in hand or shall be secured on these occasions, shall be remitted to the Conference Treasurer as soon as practicable thereafter.

4th. The names and addresses of all Superintendents of Sunday Schools shall be furuished the Secretary of this Board by the pastors and Presiding Elders.

5th. Notices for the carrying out of these plans shall be kept constantly standing in the North Carolina Christian Advocate, and also a plan for organizing Sunday Schools into Missionary Societies. Extra copies of these notices and plans shall be kept on hand for distribution by our Secretary.

6th. The Presiding Elders of the several Districts, the members of the Board of Missions and the pastors of our Station charges, together with prominent laymen in each District, and any of the other pastors whose time can be secured without detriment to their Circuit work, are designated as persons to be called on to assist the pastor and people in these special missionary meetings.

7th. We heartily recommend The Methodist Review of Missions, the little monthly, "The World for Christ," and our other missionary publications to our preachers and people. We suggest that each pastor secure our catalogue of missionary publications, examine it carefully and supply himself and people from time to time with such as will do most good.

8th. We recommend that the week from 10th to 17th March be observed as "do-without-week," and it will thus correspond with our first special missionary occasion as provided for in section three above.

9th. Our pastors are requested to take the Foreign Missionary collection by March 20th, and the Domestic Missionary collection by June 1st, provided that any pastor may take both collections together. They are urged, if possible, to secure the full amounts of both by the meeting of the District Conferences.

The following assessments have been made for 1895:

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

Your Sunday School Board submits the following:

There are in the bounds of the North Carolina Conference 631 Sunday Schools, an increase of 34; number of officers and teachers 4,895, an increase of 606; amount expended for literature $5,893.65, an increase of $495.65; contributed for missions $1,057.61, a decrease of $478.83; contributed on Children's Day $204.70, an increase of $60.36; raised for other objects $1,885.06, a decrease of $1,063.85; whole amount in Sunday Schools $9,136.02, a decrease of $31.34; number of Sunday School scholars 40,903.

The report of Rev. J. T. Lyon, Treasurer, shows that $402.79 has been paid out in the purchase of literature for needy schools and for libraries, leaving a balance to the credit of the Board of $528.55.

We repeat our offer to donate fifty per cent. of the amount necessary to purchase libraries for schools having none, provided such contribution shall in no case exceed $50.00. We urge upon our schools to accept this liberal offer. We also urge our people to use our own literature.
